my birthday

Gess what! yesterday was my birthday! my birthday ~~is~~ is on february 16. i dont now why but my mom made ~~the~~ the party on february 21. i dont really like that because i have to write longer for my party. ok. i will tell you the whole story of yesterday. so i woke up remembering it was my birthday. then i went out of the blanket. i climbed out of my ~~thof~~ bed. i went to my moms and dads room. my mom woke up and said happy birthday then i shyly said thank you. i asked my dad for the ipad. he niw i wanted to watch tv. akshly i always askt for the ipad. anyway he said yes. i went to the door i snaked it open . then i went to the living room. i sat on my feathered chair there. i went on netflix looking for ~~fo~~ i mean for a movie i already watched then i watched it. at the end there was music. the movie was mr. peabody and sherman. i love that movie. then i went to the dining table and put the volume loud. i do that so me and my parents can listen to the music the ipad plays when the movie is done. then i eat my breakfast i mean breakfast. when my mom took me to a surprise . it was the childrens museum. when i heard i mean heard music i didnt like the surprise. but when we got there it was so much fun! the end.

my tooth

guess what! my 2d tooth fell out. at first i was freaked out. then it felt weird. last week we went to the dentist. she gave us a little treasure chest to put my tooth in. i put my tooth in there. my mom was there when it fell out. she was so excited. it happened today when i was eating breakfast. i wiggled it with my tongue. then my tooth had not taken all that wiggling and so it just fell out. well actually my tooth was not really that loose because last night when i took a bite of bread my tooth stuck on to the bread and the bread jammed back and that made my tooth wiggle in fact that its ready to fall out. ok. the tooth that fell out is the middle one in the bottom row of teeth. it happened today! and now my adult tooth already has a space to grow. the end. wite! i have one more thing to say! im very happy. ok. now the end.
